

Potential Participant's information sheet:

- What is GAFT:

GAFT is a relay charity bike ride round the UK taking in the principal mills, ports, grain and feed sites. The bike will be provided and each site being visited will organise the rider/riders to the next site and on.

- When will it take place?

- The formal start will take place at the GAFTA dinner on Tuesday 19th June 2018 (bike to be ridden out of the dinner subject to approval of the venue)
- The relay proper will start the day after the GAFTA dinner from Westminster
- Continue round the UK during June and July ending at Westminster

- Who is involved?

- The regional grain and feed trade associations covering England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales that includes;
 - Bristol Corn & Feed Trade Association (BCFTA), Lancashire and Cheshire Corn & Agricultural Merchants (LACCAM), Hull Corn & Feed Trade Association (HCFTA), Liverpool Grain & Feed Trade Association (LGFTA), Manchester Corn & Allied Trades Guild (MCATG), Northern Ireland Grain Trade Association (NIGTA), Scottish Corn Trade Association (SCTA)

- How can a company take part?

- Organising a cyclist or team to ride one of the legs (which should be from your company premises to the next point of the relay)
- Arranging sponsorship for your leg of the relay
- If you wish arranging a fund raising event to coincide with your companies leg of the relay

- Charity

- FCN
 - We have chosen FCN (Farming Community Network) as they help the industries customers in times of need and have strong links with the other such Charities who cover the UK
